The Oklahoma Declaration of Sovereignty

We the People of Oklahoma do hereby affirm and claim Sovereign rights for Ourselves and for the state of Oklahoma as required by the Tenth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States of America, and as specified in the Oklahoma State House Concurrent Resolution 1028 authored by Representative Charles Key.

The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution for the United States of America reads, "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Therefore, We the People of Oklahoma do hereby affirm;

That We retain any and all powers not delegated to the United States in Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution for the United States of America; and,

That this petition serves as Notice and Demand to the federal government, as our agent, to cease and desist mandates that are beyond the scope of these constitutionally delegated powers.

By affixing our signatures to this document We the People of Oklahoma hereby assert that any acts of legislation, regulation, or mandates by the federal government of these States united that are outside its limited constitutionally enumerated powers will be considered inoperative within the state of Oklahoma.

It is by complete authority of the Constitution for the United States of America as the Supreme Law of the land that the state of Oklahoma affirms these rights and the rights of the People therein.
